PRIVACY POLICY

Thomas Flavell & Sons respects your right to privacy.

Any details which you give us via this website may be added to our database.

The database is used by Thomas Flavell & Sons (and third parties acting on its behalf) for administration and marketing purposes only.

We may, from time to time, send you mailings which you have requested or which we feel may be of interest to you and/ or relevant to your business. Such mailings may include details of the services we offer, newsletters, briefing notes and legal updates, and invitations to our various training seminars and other events.

We do not rent, sell or disclose your contact details to any third party.

If you would like to see the information we hold about you or would like to be removed from any of our mailing lists, please write to our Practice Manager at the address below.

To help us keep our database up- to- date, we would be grateful if you could let us know as soon as any of your contact details change or if you notice any inaccuracies in them.

In accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, Thomas Flavell & Sons is registered as a Data Controller on the Public Register of Data Controllers as maintained by the Information Commissioner.
